LANGHAM SUPPER CLUB

Programme Terms & Conditions

1. Langham Supper Club (hereinafter called "LSC") is managed by Langham Hotels International Limited (hereinafter called "LHI"), which reserves the right to change, limit or cancel programme benefits, rewards, rules and regulations, or even discontinue the Langham Supper Club programme altogether, at any time and without prior notice.
2. The LSC card is a membership card, not a credit card, and is the property of LHI. The loss of such card should therefore be reported to LHI immediately. A replacement card will then be issued at a nominal charge.
3. The LSC card is not transferrable and shall be used exclusively by the cardholder for their personal use; accordingly, the LSC discount applies only to meals or banquet activities hosted by the cardholder themselves, and to their own stay at Langham or its affiliated hotels. LSC members are required to present their LSC membership card before enjoying the applicable discounts and benefits.
4. The LSC food-and-beverage discount:
  - applies only to a maximum of two tables (up to 24 guests) booked for any one meal period, whether in an à la carte restaurant or banquet room;
  - does not apply to ancillary items (eg tobacco) and the service charge;
  - cannot be used in conjunction with any other special promotion;
  - is subject to blackout dates at the hotel's discretion; and
  - requires advance table booking.
5. The LSC room discount is applicable only to rooms booked directly with the participating hotel through its sales department or reservations office subject to availability and blackout dates at the hotel's discretion. Any form of online booking or booking through any third party does not qualify.
6. The LSC spa service discount requires advance booking, is subject to treatment availability and cannot be used in conjunction with other promotions at Chuan Spa.
7. The following LSC bespoke benefits are available only at our hotels in China (including Hong Kong) and London and are subject to the respective usage conditions:
  - "Upclose-&-Personal Consultation with our Top Chefs" and "Personalised Menu" – these are bespoke services and are subject to availability and separate cost quotation based on a discussion of the requirements and subsequent agreement between the LSC member and the hotel concerned.
  - "Priority Waitlist" and "Preferred Seating Arrangement" – these are subject to the hotel's / outlet's dining situation and table availability.
  - "Extraordinary Birthday Treat" – this is applicable only to an LSC member who dines with at least one paying guest during the member's birthday month. To enjoy this benefit, the LSC member must notify the hotel of his / her intended use of the Member's Birthday Treat Certificate / Voucher issued by LSC when making his / her table booking, and must present the same document before sitting down to the meal. Each LSC member shall enjoy this benefit only once each year and the Certificate / Voucher shall be surrendered to the hotel right after its use.
  - "Festive Flair" – this is applicable only to LSC members who dine at our hotel outlets during certain festive periods as defined by the relevant hotel from time to time. The offering of this benefit is also subject to availability and may vary from hotel to hotel, outlet to outlet. LSC members shall enquire about details when making their table booking.
8. LSC discounts cannot be used in conjunction with any other promotion, discount offer or frequent flyer programme benefit.
9. Where there are two or more LSC members present, only one member may use his / her discount for the same meal, banquet or hotel stay.
10. LSC is open only to residents of the country where the qualified LHI property is located. (Applicants may be requested by LHI to present proof of their identity.)
11. Every receipt, or bundle of receipts, certifying a spend of the requisite amount (excluding service charge, tips and applicable taxes) within a 90-day period at any qualified LHI property, can be utilised for the application of one membership card only.
12. Upon becoming members of LSC, applicants agree that LHI and its affiliated brands may from time to time correspond with them either by mail or electronically, for the purpose of communicating latest updates, membership benefits/ activities and hotel promotions.
13. LHI reserves the right and at its sole discretion, to reject any LSC membership application whatsoever it receives, or to terminate the membership of any LSC member who acts in a manner deemed inappropriate by LHI.
14. LHI reserves the right and at its sole discretion, to amend, delete or include any provision in the LSC Programme Terms and Conditions without notice to LSC members. It is members' responsibility to regularly check with LHI or the participating hotel to review these terms and conditions and to acquaint themselves with any changes therein.
15. In the event of any dispute related to LSC, LHI and its properties reserve the right to make the final decision.
