

DUNCAN PALMER – MANAGING DIRECTOR

THE LANGHAM HOTEL, LONDON

Duncan Palmer is the Managing Director of the Langham Hotel, London. He joined the hotel in February 2004. Prior to taking up this position Palmer was General Manager at the Sukhotai hotel in Bangkok.

Before his post at the Sukhothai, Palmer was employed by the Savoy Group at The Connaught, London for four years, where he earned the hotel many awards, including placings in 'Top 10 Hotels for Business Travellers' in Condé Nast Reader's Choice and 'Top 10 Hotels in Europe for Service' in Travel & Leisure. Prior to this, Palmer was General Manager of The Savoy, London for three years, during which time the hotel won 'Best Business Hotel in the UK', 'Hotel of the Year' and 'Worldwide Hotel of the Year' from various publications. Palmer's career also includes 12 years with the Mandarin Oriental Group throughout Asia, which involved postings in Macau, Manila, Bangkok and Jakarta.

Duncan Palmer says:

'I have the most wonderful opportunity to work with the owners and management team I have appointed, together with all the staff, to re-establish the Langham Hotel as one of the most popular, luxurious, independent and service-orientated hotels in London - an exciting challenge!
