

WHAT MAKES THE LANGHAM HOTEL, LONDON DIFFERENT?

- The Langham Hotel, London's original grand hotel
- At the start of an exciting journey steered by Duncan Palmer (formerly of The Connaught, London and The Sukothai, Bangkok) and his new management team
- Set right at the hub of London's west end - designer shops, parks, museums, galleries, theatres and cinemas, all on the doorstep
- Contemporary grand interiors - traditional fabrics, space and light
- The new spa concept - for day and residential use – swimming pool, gymnasium, treatment rooms, sauna and steam room
- Warm, professional, friendly service
- A new bar
- New chef and a new concept for Memories Restaurant – David Collard, from Pétrus
- New executive chef – Thierry Billot (formerly at Claridges and Wentworth)
- 429 Rooms and Suites
- Excellent meetings, banqueting and private dining facilities
- Concierge Club
- A member of The Leading Hotels of The World
- Opened by the Prince of Wales (later King Edward VII) in 1865 – now the flagship of an international luxury hotel company

- ends -
