LOST & FORGOTTEN SPIRITS

£38.00

An exclusive selection of hand crafted spirits from around the world. Take a stroll throughout history, indulge yourself and discover some of the very finest and rare, lost & forgotten spirits...

GENEVER with traditional Dutch cheese

Mentions of juniper use come as early as eleventh century and what used to be known as medicine became a spirit which conquered the world. Traditionally made of grains and botanicals this selection reflects the history of the category and its styles as they appeared throughout the ages.

Old Schiedam is powerful and pronounced 17th style Genever with lot of grassy and vegetal notes based on 100% malt wine with only one botanical being juniper berry.

Bols Genever is authentic recipe from 1800's and with its high malt wine content and over 15 botanicals is ideal for sipping and cocktails indeed. Maltiness with fruit notes and tangy grass.

Ketel One is 100% grain jenever with lower malt wine content and showcases the style of Genevers which came into fashion in 1900's. Smooth and light-bodied with some liquorice flavours.

MEZCAL with totopos

Del Maguey Single Village Mezcal are created in extremely small quantities following traditional production. The spirit is created using two slow distillations in wood-fire, clay or copper pot stills. The result is experience you have never tasted before.

Del Maguey Chichicapa has light nose, yet is deep and sweet on the tongue with a very complex character and long finish, with a distinct smokiness and hint of mint and exotic fruits.

Del Maguey San Luis Del Rio displays notes of spice, ripe tropical and berry fruit, grapefruit, and leather.

Del Maguey Pechuga is distilled with chicken breast and wild fruits, which creates unbelievably complex spirit with ever-changing notes of smoke, anise, fruit, and salt.

RUM with chocolate truffles

Rum is the world's most fascinating spirit, and Savanna Distillery from the Reunion Island showcases perfectly how diverse rums can be. Making thoughtful use of sugarcane they produce this wonderful spirit in many different ways.

Rhum Savanna Grand Arome 2004 Single Cask is high-ester style rum matured in barrels that previously contained cognac & port. On the palate, pronounced fruity, caramel, ginger and apricot with a spicy, warm finish.

Savanna Rhum Creole 2002, Agricole Single Cask rum matured for 5 years in barrels that previously contained cognac. Clear notes of honey with flavours of toffee, vanilla, cinnamon and anis candy.

Savanna Rhum Intense 2002 is originally aged in ex-cognac casks and has been finished for period of six months in sherry cask for extra smoothness and layers of sweetness.
